Serious prescription errors from the Doctors.

Desiderius Erasmus (1466-1536), the greatest Bible scholar ever lived said: "heresy does not arise among the laity who have the scripture in the vernacular, but among the doctors."

As Jesus said, "...it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God" (Luke 18:25), it is equally hard for many Bible scholars, who are rich in the art of language and grammar, to enter in simply because many of them reject the simple gospel message found in the King James Bible (KJB) and instead accept "hock, line and sinker," any anti-KJB, watered down definition and grammar materials (including mistakes made) from lexicons or word analytical authors. (Mr. Donald Brake, author of "A Visual History of the English Bible," is wrong in many places in his book, but correct with the following statement made by him: "The more educated one becomes, the more literal a translation he/she demands.") Once their converted students achieve higher learning scholarship status in the classroom, they then practically "worship," so to speak, these scholarship gods: lexicons and interlinear authors.

Below are profiles of some of the leading scholars whose Bible tools (Bible lexicons, dictionaries, interlinear, Bible word synonyms, Bible software, etc.) are used extensively to create today's modern Bible versions. (Other prominent scholars are listed below.)

Do you know this man?

His name is Joseph Thayer (1828-1901). He authored, "Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon." Most lexicons today, if they are not copying directly from Thayer's Greek-English lexicon, are certain to have copied extensively from other sources that are using Thayer's work. When you read today's lexicons, dictionaries, modern Bible versions, Bible interlinear, Bible software, etc., they are all most certainly using Thayer's definition materials.

For example: Choosing the "right" words to satisfy scholar's belief for the word "Godhead" (in the KJV), they turned to Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon. Thayer changed this word in Rom. 1:20, Acts 17:29 and Col. 2:9, to "divine nature," "the divine being" and "deity." (See the NIV and many other modern Bibles.) If you see the word "Godhead" changed to the words mentioned above in any versions, these changes came from Thayer's interpretation (actually, his Unitarian beliefs) documented in his Greek-English Lexicon.

Modern scholars intentionally used Thayer's lexicon knowing CLEARLY (or were very much aware of) the publisher's warning in the introduction of Thayer's Unitarian beliefs and how they usually spill over into his work.

The introduction said: "A word of caution is necessary. Thayer was a Unitarian, and the errors of this sect occasionally come through in the explanatory notes. The reader should be alert for both subtle and blatant denials of such doctrine as the Trinity (Thayer regarded Christ as a mere man and the Holy Spirit as an impersonal force emanating from God), the inherent and total depravity of fallen human nature, the eternal punishment of the wicked, and Biblical inerrancy." (See Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, Grand Rapids, MI, Baker Book House, 1977, page vii. This warning was removed in his lexicon by other publishers for obvious reasons.)

What Joseph Thayer believed?

He was a Unitarian. He believed Buddha, Mohammed, Confucius, Lao, the Vedas and Upanishads are all sources of revelation for mankind; "man" can have "a consciousness like that of Christ;" he did not believe in the Trinity; he refuse to acknowledge Jesus as Lord, God or the Messiah; he opposed prayer to Christ; he did not believe the Bible to be divinely inspired and infallible or that it is the Word of God; he believed man is inherently good not needing Christ as Savior; but only as an example. "Good deeds" are a part of "repentance" according to him.

A DICTIONARY MEANING

What is the difference between the words Godhead, godhead, divine nature, the divine being and deity? Do they have the same meaning?

Godhead: The Trinity, a title of God; Lord, Creator, Maker, God Almighty, Jehovah, etc.

godhead: godhood; divinity; the state or quality of being a god, divine or deity.

Divine nature: Any characteristic, supernatural, spiritual or angelic occurrences that resembles or an act of God, Christ, a god or a supernatural entity; they can be either clean or unclean spirits.

Divine being: Can mean anyone that resembles God, a god, a supernatural entity whether it's clean or an unclean entity.

Deity: The state of being a god; divine nature; godhood, a god or goddess. Similarly, Deify means: to make a god of; rank among the gods. To look upon or worship as a god; to glorify, exalt, or adore in an extreme way; to idolize.

NOTES: There are no other words or language that uses the word "Godhead" to mean anything other than the triune God. Divine nature, divine being or deity by itself can mean or refer to God, Satan, demons, a god or false god, etc. These words denote a quality or characteristic, not a title.

Do you know this man?

His name is Christian D. Ginsburg (1831-1914). He authored, "The Holy Scriptures in the Original Languages." His Hebrew lexicon is used among "Christian" scholars today as an authoritative Massoretic Hebrew Old Testament text.

This Old Testament text is definitely not the Massoretic text the KJV translators used, but a text written solely by a Satanist in the person of Mr. Ginsburg. Many of our modern Bible word selections, choices, definitions, Bible notes and commentaries came from Ginsburg's work.

What C. D. Ginsburg believed?

He was a follower of Luciferian Madame Blavatsky; he attended Luciferian meetings with her and was accompanied by other occultist; he was an occult Kabbalist and wrote the occult book called, "The Kabbalah" in 1863; he wrote it "intending it to be a guide for those who wish to be initiated into the mysteries of this theosophy..."; Luciferian Blavatsky in both of her published wicked books (The Secret Doctrine" and "Isis Unveiled"), authoritatively quoted from "The Kabbalah." Other occultist quoted Ginsburg as an authoritative Kabbalah source; he did not believe Solomon authored the book of Ecclesiastes; he taught reincarnation in his book; he did not believe Jesus Christ was the Messiah, but believed that the messiah will be the last person born; he promoted "The Essenes" and believed that Jesus belong to this "holy" brotherhood; also, he believed Moses instituted this order.

Can you the reader explain how our "trusted!" modern day scholars can use a Satanist like Ginsburg to provide us in modern Bible versions with Bible words, definitions, Bible notes, commentaries, etc? After learning about what Ginsburg believed, would you consult him for biblical explanations and interpretations? Our modern version scholars and lexicographers seem not to be concerned, as long as it is different to that of the KJV and big profits from book sale continue to flow in.

Do you know this man?

His name is James Strong (1822-1894). He authored, "Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible," which includes his Hebrew & Greek definitions at the back. His valuable concordance is one of the most treasured tools for Christians when searching and comparing scripture with scripture. This is with exception to his corrupt Hebrew and Greek definitions at the back. Strong copied definition materials in the back of his Concordance from Gesenius' Hebrew Lexicon, Liddell-Scott, Thayer, Brown, Driver and Briggs.

What James Strong believed?

He denied the inspiration of the Bible; the ASV translation committee Strong worked on, called Jesus Christ a "creature" and not the Creator; and therefore, "worship" should be "reverence" when applied to Him (See ASV notes for John 9:38); he charged that Lucifer is not Satan, but he is Jesus Christ; he did not believe in a literal hell; he describes hell in the Bible as "figurative" and not a place of torment; he believed in the ESSENES and claimed that John the Baptist was parallel to this "holy" order; he believed that heathens will be saved, regardless of his religion and lack of personal faith in Jesus Christ. He said: "As to the heathen and others who, entirely without their own fault, have missed the way of life, Holy Scripture nowhere compels us to believe that these should summarily, and on that account alone, be the victims of an eternal damnation."; he did not believe in the Trinity; he believed that Mark 16:9-20 should be removed from the Bible because there are no evidence to prove it belongs there.

The three scholars above, Brown, Driver and Briggs (along with Wilhelm Gesenius's Hebrew lexicon), were the conspirators who changed "Lucifer" in Isaiah 14:12 to "the morning star;" modern versions then followed suit. (See the NIV and many others.)

Do you know these men?

Brown, Driver and Briggs (BDB) produced the "A Hebrew and English Lexicon of the Old Testament" (also, called, "The Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon"). This lexicon was and continues to be used extensively to produce today's modern version Old Testament text. This lexicon can be found on just about every pastor's office book shelf.

Most pastors and preachers use BDB Hebrew lexicon and if they do not directly, the Hebrew lexicon word choices and commentaries used, authoritatively cites or reference BDB lexicon.

What these men believed?

Even though Scripture clearly proves that David penned the book of Psalms receiving confirmation from Jesus in (Mark 12:36), Briggs claimed that both (The Scripture and Jesus Christ) were wrong. He said that with the rise of Higher Criticism, Davidic authorship of the book of Psalms was questioned and soon abandoned by all critics. He criticized Jesus for being not informed with matters of "Higher Criticism" which did not confront Him in His day. Driver claimed that the majority of "Davidic" Psalms or the book of Psalm was not written by David the king. Anyone claiming inspiration of scripture must not disturb the critics but is charged by Briggs, to keep such ignorant and dangerous ideas private; such belief is positively dangerous. Briggs said, "The Bible...has no magical value in it, and there is no halo enclosing it...It will not guard a home from fire half as well as holy water. The Bible, as a book, is paper, print, and binding – nothing more... There is nothing divine in the text..." "The Bible should not become an "idol." Brown, Driver and Briggs, all denied the inspiration of Scripture. Briggs and Driver denied that Moses, Ezra, Solomon, Isaiah and Jeremiah wrote their respective books. Driver did not believe Moses received the book of Genesis from the mouth of God. It was put together, according to him, by other writers. Even though Jesus spoke of Jonah in Luke 11:32, Driver denied that the book of Jonah was written by the prophet Jonah. He charged Jesus with not being scientific. Briggs argued that there was not sufficient historical evidence to prove definitively that Jesus had taught His own divinity and that He had risen physically from the dead. Brown and Briggs declared "war" on Traditionalism (anyone who trust the KJV to be the inspired, infallible Word of God) with "knife and fire" cutting down everything to prepare for the "spring time of a new age to come upon us.” Unfortunately, these words have somewhat come to past because today, BDB Hebrew-English lexicon can be found on just about every pastor’s office book shelf.

There are many other serious questionable scholars whose work infiltrated all of our modern Bible versions. All Greek and Hebrew study tools that are copied by today’s lexicographers, came from lexicons and critical editions written by all persons mentioned above (Thayer, Ginsburg, Strong, Brown, Driver and Briggs), along with Vine, Moulton, Milligan, Wuest, Trench, Vincent, Liddell, Scott, Zodhiates, Gesenius, Scrivener, Berry, Westcott, Hort, Aland and Metzger (he believed that even the original manuscripts contain errors). All of them were proven unreliable in various degrees.

Can you the reader explain how is it that “Christian” scholars, seeing CLEARLY all the visible WARNING signs (“Danger,” “Keep Out,” “No Trespassing,” “Poison,” “Toxic,” etc.) but still foolishly cross the “barbed wired fence,” dangerously trespassing on the enemy’s territory, going to an unsafe and very destructive adversary for instructions on how to defeat their “own people?” Is this the right or the Christian thing to do? Would Jesus Christ have done this or instruct His children to do the same? What’s wrong with this? Isn’t this crime called Treason? Aren’t scholars who do the above called traitors? Where do you think their hearts lie (Matt. 6:24): with the enemy or with their “own people;” with God or with Satan; with pagans (the apostate church) or with Christians? Never mind their disguised “attack” (previous books written and views) on the enemy; they are double-crossing informers working for the enemy.

competent scholars” as was mentioned by him.

Errors in Liddell and Scott’s lexicon continued to surface long after its first publication in 1843 to the eighth edition printed in 1897 one year before Liddell’s death.

In 1940 Stuart Jones and Roderick McKenzie tried to correct the many errors that continue to surface by printing a 9th edition of Liddell-Scott’s lexicon (Liddell-Scott-Jones) but failed to contain the flow of errors that continue to arise. The complexities of combining pagan definition with Bible words continue to cause errors to surface which resulted in Oxford University adding a supplement edition in 1996 containing 320 pages of corrections to the main text. Chadwick (author of “Lexicographica Graeca,” a 343 pages exposé in 1996 of all Greek-English lexicons) believes that the main lexicon (Liddell-Scott) is so faulty that a mere Supplement cannot repair the problems. He found “underlying defects” with many “faults to be corrected.” He claimed: “There is no way a good dictionary can be created out of a bad one.”

Unfortunately all these errors over 153 years of correction attempts that produced nine editions, have crept their way into all other lexicographer’s work who copied from Liddell-Scott’s work. As a result, today’s scholars, professor, preacher, teachers are quoting (directly or indirectly) from an “error stench corpse” of “rotten,” misleading lexicons.

Sadly, scholars, professors, preachers, teachers, etc., today are all using these pagan definitions to correct words in our Holy Bible.

Do you know this man?

His name is Richard C. Trench (1807-1886). Richard C. Trench was the author of “Synonyms of the New Testament” in 1855 and a 215 pages book entitled, “On the Authorized Version of the New Testament in connection with some recent proposals for its Revision” in 1858. He was “...persuaded that a revision ought to come...” to the King James Bible and was “...convinced that it WILL come...” He strongly believed that it was inevitable and therefore started all course of action necessary to carry out his satanic objective.

One of the first steps in the process was to produce a book attacking the Authorized Version (KJV) making it out to what he considered to be an enormous amount of mistakes that seriously need to be corrected in the text. These “mistakes” as he called them, resulted from (his own doing) mixing pagan definitions with the Holy words of God.

His book’s proposal (“On the Authorized Version...”), outlined arguments for a revision to the King James Bible and the way forward to successfully execute the plot. When the book was completed, a copy was delivered to a “friend” who was then the Prime minister (PM), William Ewart Gladstone (1809-1898) who read its recommendations as noted in the PM’s diary on September 14, 1862.

The conspiracy that was long in planning was now all coming together by leaders in British Parliament and the Church of England.

Like a secret fraternal sign, channeling action “now,” from the book, (see the occult symbol on the book’s front cover) PM Gladstone started the process of pulling off all that was necessary and within his power to move the project forward. This move was to become one of the biggest upset and betrayal events in Bible history second to “Judas Iscariot’s kiss of death,” sending a serious spirit of confusion among Christians that is very seriously being felt today.

Obviously, to mobilize all parties that were secretly attached to the conspiracy, Trench placed this satanic symbol on the front cover of his book. This symbol was a serpent forming a circle with its tail in its mouth and a lamp in the center of the circle.

Do you know these men?

Their names are Henry Liddell and Robert Scott. Henry Liddell (1811-1898) and Robert Scott (1811-1887) together co-authored “Liddell-Scott Greek-English Lexicon.” Their lexicon was one of the first of its kind to be produced and as a result provided definition materials for all Greek-English New Testament lexicons thereafter. The birth of Greek-English Bible lexicons actually started in 1843 when Liddell and Scott’s work was published.

It became so popular when published, its “...words have worked their way into Marvin Vincent’s Word Studies in the New Testament, J.H. Thayer’s Greek-English Lexicon, and from there into W.E. Vine’s Expository Dictionary and George Ricker Berry’s Greek-English Interlinear New Testament.” Even James Strong copied definition materials from Liddell-Scott in his Greek definitions at the back of his Concordance.

Practically all Greek-English New Testament lexicons afterwards directly or indirectly copied definition materials from Liddell-Scott lexicon (or copied from other sources that copied from it) including the huge amount of mistakes and errors made.

What made Liddell-Scott lexicon so unique was that it contained massive body of errors that unsuccessfully went through nine editions to try correcting them. In Liddell’s later years, he admitted his lexicon had numerous errors therefore spending most of his life after 1843 trying to correct the many mistakes that surfaced. His biographer wrote of Liddell’s “unending task of correcting the many errors” in his lexicon. Unfortunately, he died leaving the correction attempts to “other

This occult symbol is believed to have triggered the conspiracy into action which began the process of removing the KJV Bible as the official Bible of choice among the people.

Do you know this man?

His name is Frederick Scrivener (1813-1891). Scrivener joined the Revised Version (RV) Committee in 1872 along with very questionable and liberal scholars who all came together with one goal in mind: “exterminate!” the 1611 KJB and replace it with a new Greek and English text. (The Westcott and Hort Greek Text and the English Revised Version Text)

Scrivener was charged with the task of backward-translating the English 1611 King James Bible into Greek and provide copies for comparison purpose during the project. Also, he was given the assignment of providing all the marginal notes (footnotes) for this new Revised Version Bible that would be created.

However, as he was backward-translating the English 1611 KJB into Greek, he did not followed it in all places. There were places where he intentionally deviated and inserted his own views (words that were dropped or added), those from other scholarship colleagues or those from earlier printed Greek and Latin editions. When he was completed, his new Greek text matched no other Greek text in existence.

Scrivener clearly admitted that his backward-translation did not follow the 1611 English King James Bible in all places.

Scholars today use Scrivener’s backward-translation as a RELIABLE source when producing new modern Bible versions or when arguing about “what is” or “what is not” found in this Greek text.

His Greek edition that is falsely named the “Textus Receptus,” is sold today and assumed by many to be “The Beza Text” or falsely claimed by publishers to be “...The Exact Greek Textus Receptus That underlies The King James Bible.” Thus, his “Textus Receptus,” used among Christians today as an extremely reliable source, in reality, the opposite is true.

Helena P. Blavatsky (1831-1891)

Do you know this Woman? Who is she?

Her name is Madam Helena P. Blavatsky (1831-1891). She was a high-priestess of sorcery, magic, Satan worship and occultism. She founded the organization called, “The Theosophy Society” and her magazine called, “Lucifer,” evolved into the two-volume book called “The Secret Doctrine.” This book is one of the most wicked books ever written and it teaches that Lucifer, “the One,” should be worshipped.

Usually at her speaking engagements, she would occasional display her occult powers, dazzling the audience.

Did you know that some of our “trusted” Bible scholars attended Luciferian meetings with her? When you hang out with someone infested with fleas, what happens?

Let’s examined what Luciferian, Madame Blavatsky wrote comparing and tracking them with what our “trusted” fleabag scholars included in their modern “Bibles,” Bible dictionaries, lexicons, commentaries, etc. (All references below of “Secret Doctrine,” are from the online edition found at <http://www.theosociety.org/pasadena/sd/sd-hp.htm>)

“How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning...Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell” Isaiah 14:12 (KJV)

“How you have fallen from heaven O morning star, son of the dawn...but you are brought down to the grave.” Isaiah 14:12 (NIV)

“How you have fallen from heaven O star of the morning, son of the dawn...you will be thrust down to Sheol.” Isaiah 14:12 (NASB)

Madame Blavatsky wrote:

1 The devil is now called Darkness by the Church, whereas, in the Bible he is called the “Son of God” (see Job), the bright star of the early morning, Lucifer (see Isaiah). There is a whole philosophy of dogmatic craft in the reason why the first Archangel, who sprang from the depths of Chaos, was called Lux (Lucifer), the “Luminous Son of the Morning,” or man-vantaric Dawn. He was transformed by the Church into Lucifer or Satan, because he is higher and older than Jehovah, and had to be sacrificed to the new dogma. (Vol. 1, Page 70, Line 14; emphasis added)

2 Lucifer, the genius of the “morning star” (see Isaiah xiv., 12) -- (Vol. 2, Page 501, Line 4)

3 The latter has collapsed under the too close analysis, and is — drowned. Symbologists have discovered with dismay that their adopted deity was only a mask for many other gods, an Euhemerized extinct planet, at best, the genius of the Moon and Saturn with the Jews, of the Sun and Jupiter, with early Christians; that the Trinity was, in truth, only an astronomical triad — unless they accepted the more abstract and metaphysical meanings given to it by the Gentiles — composed of the Sun (the Father), and the two planets Mercury (the Son) and Venus (the Holy Ghost, Sophia, the Spirit of Wisdom, Love and Truth, and Lucifer, as Christ, the bright and morning Star; (Vol. 2, Page 540, Line 5; emphasis added).

4 Lucifer, or Luciferus, is the name of the angelic Entity presiding over the light of truth as over the light of the day. (Vol. 2, Page 512, Line 10)

5 Since the Church, in her struggle with Manichaeism, invented the devil, and by placing a theological extinguisher on the radiant star-god, Lucifer, the “Son of the Morning,” thus created the most gigantic of all her paradoxes — a black and tenebrous light — the myth has struck its roots too deep in the soil of blind faith to permit, in our age, even those, who do not acquiesce in her dogmas and laugh at her horned and cloven-footed Satan, to come out bravely and confess the antiquity of the oldest of all traditions. (Vol. 2, Page 238-239, Line 6; emphasis added)

6 ...the ‘Light-bringer,’ the Lucifer, the ‘Morning Star,’ the ‘Son of the morning’ — the very highest title ‘out of heaven,’ for in heaven it cannot be, but out of heaven it is everything. (Vol. 2, Page 238, Footnote, Line 13; emphasis added)

So where do you think these “fleas” in our modern Bible versions came from? (Brown, Driver and Briggs?)

Another change Madam Blavatsky, (along with other Luciferian colleagues) was successful in getting our Bible scholars to include in their Bible works was to change “He,” “Him” and “His” when referring to God to “the one.” In the New Age Movement, Lucifer is referred to as “the one.” “The One” is so central to Luciferianism that the entire two volumes book “The Secret Doctrine,” is a discussion of “the One.”

For some scriptural reference on this change, read the following verses in the NASB (NIV) and compare them with the KJV: Luke 12:5; Matt. 13:37, 24:13; John 6:46, 7:18, (9:37), 15:21, (12:45); I Cor. 15:28; Acts 7:38, (10:21, 10:42), 22:9, Col 3:10; Heb. 5:7, 7:21; Rev. (1:18), 2:1. There are many more verses where these changes were made.

Well, think about changing “Morning Star” (a name given to Jesus Christ in Rev. 22:16) to Lucifer or changing Lucifer to Jesus Christ. We all know that people name their pets Lucifer.

The name “Lucifer” is gone in modern versions (like the NIV and many others at Is. 14:12) and replaced with the “Morning Star.”

Let’s for now just forget the law of good grammar and proper English and use the law of common sense: by ignoring the “scholarship lies” given by liberal Bible scholars in their Greek and Hebrew lexicons and dictionaries, changing Lucifer to “the morning Star” is the same as calling God (or Jesus Christ) Lucifer. Can you imagine how dangerously insulting this is to God? Even if we accept the lies given for this change, it is still insulting to God because of our perceived perception of the evil person Isaiah 14:12 is talking about. Can you imagine changing God’s name to the most wicked person in the universe. How do you think this affects our precious Lord by publicly assigning this title or name to Him?

Publicly change the king or queen names to an evil and insulting name and see what eventually happens to you no matter where you are on this planet. Can you imagine then our King of all kings and Lord of all lords; our great God, the Most High? Can you imagine insulting the “GREATEST POWER!” in the universe?

“A son honoureth his father and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? And if I be a master, where is my fear? said the LORD of hosts unto you, O Priests, that despise my name...” “The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar...” (Malachi 1:6, 2:12; also, Jer. 5:22-24)

This author will definitely take no chances at promoting this name change, neither books nor “Bibles” that condone it. The children of Israel thought they were correct with supporting the 10 wicked spies in Numbers Chapter 13 and 14 and paid dearly for it. Korah and the 250 princes who came up against Moses (Numbers 16:1-35) thought they were right and paid a horrible price for it. Look at how God responded to Miriam and Aaron when both of them spoke against Moses. (Numbers 12:1-16) Even when Moses cried out and begged God to heal Miriam, “now!” God refused and allowed her to be ashamed seven days. Look what happened to Uzzah, a man who loved the Lord and who thought he was right with what he did. Nevertheless, God’s anger was kindled and He killed him because of his error (II Samuel 6:6-7). The sad thing about this incident is that we all would have done the same thing if we were Uzzah and not escaped God’s wrath or His judgment. Not knowing His word or instructions were no excuse!

Remember, God is also a God of WRATH. He is God of yesterday, today and forever; He NEVER changes. “Were ye not afraid” to promote the NIV and other modern versions that made this change (Num. 12:8)? What do you think the problem was in Numbers Chapter 13:30-33 and 14:1-45? It was a serious lack of faith and a breach of promise (Num. 14:34). After an abundance of miracles in Egypt and in the wilderness of how God provided, scholars, leaders, preachers of Moses’ day did not believe God had the power to preserve and protect them. (Sound very much like scholars today questioning God’s ability to preserve His Word throughout all generations intact and without errors for ever as He promised.) For this lack of faith or breach of God’s promise, they did not enter into the Promised Land neither did they inherit anything.

Even Moses did not believe God’s specific instruction, “...speak ye unto the rock...” (Numbers 20:7-12), and for this reason, he did not sanctify (glorify, proclaim or preached) God’s unadulterated and perfect Word among the people (because of his unbelief); thus, he lost one of the greatest blessings all Israel looked forward to receiving at the time: this was entering into the Promised Land. (Imagine him saying: rocks don’t talk!) This is a very serious warning lesson for us today no matter where you are spiritually; that is, God is no respecter of persons. We all know the conclusion of this story: even though Moses unsuccessfully begged God to reconsider His judgment, he paid dearly for his error; the error and sin of unbelief. (Rom. 14:23, Heb. 10:38, 11:6)

The ONE ALL, and the One “All in all” is “the basic conceptions on which the Secret Doctrine rests.

8 In “The Secret Doctrine’s” heavy complex Satanic rhetoric, “The One” is mistakenly applied to Jehovah. This is because the One is higher and older than Jehovah.

See John P. Van Mater, who prepared the index for “The Secret Doctrine,” interpretation of “The One” in Vol. 1, Page 129-130 as seen in the index under the heading “One, the.” Also see Vol. 1, Page 71, Line 1.

The “Dragon of Wisdom” is the One, the “Eka” (Sanskrit) or Saka. It is curious that Jehovah’s name in Hebrew should also be One, Echod. “His name is Echod”: say the Rabbins. The philologists ought to decide which of the two is derived from the other — linguistically and symbolically: surely, not the Sanskrit? The “One” and the Dragon are expressions used by the ancients in connection with their respective Logoi. Jehovah — esoterically (as Elohim) — is also the Serpent or Dragon that tempted Eve, and the “Dragon” is an old glyph for “Astral Light” (Primordial Principle), “which is the Wisdom of Chaos.”

10 Secret Doctrine says (Vol. 1, Page 568, Line 6):

Everything originated in the ONE, and, proceeding from the one, must finally return to the One.

So what do you think our “trusted” scholars are subtly trying to teach us? Just think about it for a moment: changing “He,” “Him” and “His” to “The One” eventually leads to Blavatsky’s teaching of worshipping Lucifer. Blavatsky and our corrupt Bible scholars want us to believe God is “The One” (who is higher than Jehovah).

Jesus said unto the high powered doctors of the law (judges and politicians), lawyers, the scribes and Pharisees, the chief priests and elders of the people (the worldly scholars and counselors in His day), the very same caliber of men who definitely emulated identical characteristic of scholars today: “...woe unto you scribes and Pharisees hypocrites...ye blind guides...ye fools and blind...Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?” (Matthew 23:13-33) These men were smart; they were brilliant; they drew the crowds by their eloquent speaking; they were powerful motivational orators; masters of the art of persuasion, very similar to many of our well known high profile speakers, authors and some television evangelist today.

Dangerous insults to GOD!
“Were ye NOT afraid” TO INSULT HIM?

Suppose your parents named you Lucifer at birth and you had to live with this name until you were old enough to legally change it; how would you feel? How would you feel if your name was Judas, Jezebel or Delilah? Suppose your name was Adolph Hitler, Jim Jones or one of the most wicked persons known to man? How would you feel? If someone called you stupid, idiot, a dog, a pig or low down dirt, how do you think these names would affect you if they continue publicly calling you by them? How insulting do you think this would be?

Can you the reader imagine not inheriting anything in the kingdom of heaven because of a lack of faith or a breach of God's promises? For Israel (many of them), it was not inheriting neither entering into the Promised Land. Can you imagine contributing to causing many others to follow you by promoting these bogus Bibles and their antichrist views? It is amazing how some of the "best" intellectual minds (scholars, professors, preachers, and teachers, etc.) try and explain away this issue when they themselves would find it very insulting to be called Lucifer or one of the most wicked persons known to man.

Holy Spirit out of the mix.

God is not the author of confusion and therefore His writing style was with variety to properly and effectively communicate what He wanted His people to hear or read. In the case of the Bible, God's Word, it was a text that was guided and directed by the Holy Spirit. In other words, the intended thoughts of the Holy Spirit along with the intended thoughts of man (using his own writing style) combined together to be placed into a physical book, its contents of which was already written before the foundation of the world (John 1:1). When the thoughts of man (his writing style) strayed somewhat, the thoughts of the Holy Spirit superseded, thus aiding and steering the writer back to the correct spiritual composition.

"The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." (Psalm 12:6-7) "...when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe." (1 Thessalonians 2:13) "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." (John 6:63) "For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven." (Psalm 119:89) "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." (1 Corinthians 2:14) "...the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever...But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you." (1 Peter 1:23-25)

What is the different between God's words and man's words?

Spiritual discernment is God's hidden message given (spoken or written) to Christians, which are "past finding out" among "thieves and robbers." (Romans 11:33, John 10:1, 27) When liberal scholars examined God's Word, they become confused because they cannot hear His voice neither receive the light of His Word through advanced education.

Can we apply man-made modern scientific stylometry analytics (a secular literary tool) to each books of the Bible to identify authorship? Can this scientific method work when two persons (a speech writer preparing a document for the speaker) together compile a document at the same time? Furthermore, can it work especially when God and man together compile the document? Can it determine who both authors are?

Even though forensic linguist are today successful somewhat with identifying the author of a written document, the question remains: can it successfully identify a written document that was aided and directed by the Holy Spirit but was physically written by man?

In modern times, the development of computers and their capacities for analyzing large quantities of data enhanced this type of effort. The Great capacity of computers for data analysis, however, did not guarantee quality output. For example, in the early 1960s, Rev. A. Q. Morton produced a computer analysis of the fourteen Epistles of the New Testament attributed to St. Paul, which (inaccurately) showed that six different authors had written that body of work.

This leads us to our main point: Stylometry does not always accurately work and should definitely not have been used on books of the Bible, God's Word in the 1800s.

Unfortunately our liberal, spiritually malnourished, Bible scholar's literary criticism forensic tools (whose theories were adopted by today's lexicographers), led many of them to foolishly conclude the following:

They claimed, Solomon was not the author of the book of Ecclesiastes. Moses, Ezra, Solomon (his book: Proverbs), Isaiah and Jeremiah did not write their respective books. Moses did not receive the book of Genesis from the mouth of God neither did he wrote all of the first five books of the Bible. The prophet Jonah did not write the book of Jonah. The majority of the book of Psalm was not written by David the king. Lamentations was not the work of Jeremiah. A woman wrote the book of Hebrews; and the godless intellectual ignorance goes on and on.

A Faulty Prescription Theory From The Doctors

Was Solomon the author of the book of Ecclesiastes? Did Moses, Ezra, Isaiah and Jeremiah write their respective books? Let us look at the theory scholars used to arrive at these conclusions.

Literary or textual criticism was a term used frequently in the 1800s by Bible scholars; however, today a modern term for this concept is called stylometry.

Stylometry is the scientific technique scholars used to identify the author or writer of a document. It is the study of the chronology and development of an author's work based mainly on the recurrence of particular forms of expressions or trends of thought to determine authorship. The identification of whether a given individual originally said or wrote a document relies on the analytics of their idiolect, or unique patterns of language used (vocabulary, sentence structure, contents, pronunciation, spelling, grammar, etc.).

But how does stylometry analytics work? It is a method that relies heavily on the assumption that each speaker or writer has a unique set of written or spoken habits, thus rendering no significant difference between their speech or written document.

In order to carry out the test on these habits utilizing the writer's expressions or trend of thoughts, the occurrences of each type of word in the text must be identified and the distribution plotted in each sentence. The distribution for these unique word habits must then be compared with the average sentences in the text. The sets of unique values should track each other. Any altered section of the text would show a distinct discrepancy between the values or the set of habits and the altered section. In-other-words, any tampered section or "foreign" entry in the document will exhibit a different pattern from the rest of the text.

Another concept used to identify authorship is called, "Linguistic Fingerprint." It is a concept put forward by some scholars that each human being uses language differently, and that this difference between people involves a collection of markers which stamps a speaker/writer as unique, similar to a fingerprint. Under this view, it is assumed that every individual uses language differently and this difference can be observed as a fingerprint.

A person's linguistic fingerprint can be reconstructed from the individual's daily interactions and a variety of self-reported personality characteristics, situational variables and physiological markers.

Forensic linguist, John Olsson, an expert in the field of linguistic theories, argued that "although the concept of linguistic fingerprinting is attractive to law enforcement agencies, there is so far little hard evidence to support the notion." (see the link below)

Language is not an inherited property, but one that is socially acquired and developed overtime. Thus, using these literary methods to identify an author's speech or written work is not entirely practical.
