Were ye not afraid to insult Him?

Suppose your parents named you Lucifer at birth and you had to live with this name until you were old enough to legally change it; how would you feel? How would you feel if your name was Judas, Jezebel or Delilah? Suppose your name was Adolph Hitler, Jim Jones or one of the most wicked persons known to man? How would you feel if someone called you stupid, idiot, a dog, a pig or low down dirt...

“Fear ye not me? Saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season...” (Jeremiah 5:22-24)

¹Suppose your parents named you Lucifer at birth and you had to live with this name until you were old enough to legally change it; how would you feel? How would you feel if your name was Judas, Jezebel or Delilah? Suppose your name was Adolph Hitler, Jim Jones or one of the most wicked persons known to man? How would you feel? If someone called you stupid, idiot, a dog, a pig or low down dirt, how do you think these names would affect you if they continue publicly calling you by them? How insulting do you think this would be?

“How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning...Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell” Isaiah 14:12 (KJV)

“How you have fallen from heaven O morning star, son of the dawn...but you are brought down to the grave.” Isaiah 14:12 (NIV)

“How you have fallen from heaven O star of the morning, son of the dawn...you will be thrust down to Sheol.” Isaiah 14:12 (NASB)

²Well, think about changing “Morning Star” (a name given to Jesus Christ in Rev. 22:16) to Lucifer or changing Lucifer to Jesus Christ. We all know that people name their pets Lucifer.

The name “Lucifer” is gone in modern versions (like the NIV and many others at Is. 14:12) and replaced with the “Morning Star.”

³Let's for now just forget the law of good grammar and proper English and use the law of common sense: by ignoring the “scholarship lies” given by liberal Bible scholars in their Greek and Hebrew lexicons and dictionaries, changing Lucifer to “the morning Star” is the same as calling God (or Jesus Christ) Lucifer. Can you imagine how dangerously insulting this is to God? Even if we accept the lies given for this change, it is still insulting to God because of our perceived perception of the evil person Isaiah 14:12 is talking about. Can you imagine changing God's name to the most wicked person in the universe. How do you think this affects our precious Lord by publicly assigning this title or name to Him?

⁴Publicly change the king or queen names to an evil and insulting name and see what eventually happens to you no matter where you are on this planet. Can you imagine then our King of all kings and Lord of all lords; our great God, the Most High? Can you imagine insulting the “Greatest POWER!” in the universe?

“A son honoureth his father and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? And if I be a master, where is my fear? said the LORD of hosts unto you, O Priests, that despise my name...” “The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar...” (Malachi 1:6, 2:12)

⁵This author will definitely take no chances at promoting this name change, neither books nor “Bibles” that condone it. The children of Israel thought they were correct with supporting the 10 wicked spies in Numbers Chapter 13 and 14 and paid dearly for it. Korah and the 250 princes who came up against Moses (Numbers 16:1-35) thought they were right and paid a horrible price for it. Look at how God responded to Miriam and Aaron when both of them spoke against Moses. (Numbers 12:1-16) Even when Moses cried out and begged God to heal Miriam, “now!” God refused and allowed her to be ashamed seven days. Look what happened to Uzzah, a man who loved the Lord and who thought he was right with what he did. Nevertheless, God's anger was kindled and He killed him because of his error (II Samuel 6:6-7). The sad thing about this incident is that we all would have done the same thing if we were Uzzah and not escaped God's wrath or His judgment. Not knowing His word or instructions were no excuse!

⁶Remember, God is also a God of WRATH. He is God of yesterday, today and forever; He NEVER changes. “Were ye not afraid” to promote the NIV and other modern versions that made this change (Jer. 5:22-24)? What do you think the problem was in Numbers Chapter 13:30-33 and 14:1-45? It was a serious lack of faith, unbelief and a breach of promise (Num. 14:34). After an abundance of miracles in Egypt and in the wilderness of how God provided, scholars, leaders, preachers in Moses' day still did not believe God had the power to preserve and protect them. (Sound very much like scholars today questioning God's ability to preserve His Word throughout all generations intact and without errors for ever as He promised.) For this lack of faith or breach of God's promise, they did not enter into the Promised Land neither did they inherit anything.

⁷Even Moses did not believe God's clear instruction: “...speak ye unto the rock...” (Numbers 20:7-12) For this reason, he did not sanctify (glorify, proclaim or preached) God's unadulterated and perfect Word among the people. (He no-doubt questioned what God told him to do because of his unbelief by saying, “Can a rock speak?” “Why should I talk to a rock?” “A rock cannot talk back?") Thus, he lost one of the greatest blessings all Israel looked forward to receiving at the time: this was entering into the Promised Land. (Imagine him saying: rocks don't talk!) This is a very serious warning lesson for us today no matter where you are spiritually; that is, God is no respecter of persons. We all know the conclusion of this story: even though Moses unsuccessfully begged God to reconsider His judgment, he paid dearly for his error; the error and sin of unbelief. (Rom. 14:23, Heb. 10:38, 11:6) ⁸Can you the reader imagine not inheriting anything in the kingdom of heaven because of a lack of faith or a breach of God's promises. For Israel (many of them), it was not inheriting neither entering into the Promised Land) Can you imagine contributing to causing many others to follow you by promoting these bogus Bibles and their antichrist views? It is amazing how some of the "best" intellectual minds (scholars, professors, preachers, and teachers, etc.) try and explain away this issue when they themselves would find it very insulting to be called Lucifer or one of the most wicked persons known to man.

Mr. James White author of the book "The King James Only Controversy" (one of the well known defenders of modern versions) on page 138, very dogmatically explain away this issue by stating that to understand the change you have to "read things in context." After several questions to justify his reasoning, he said, "there is no logical reason to take offense at the proper translation of Isaiah 14:12 in the NIV or NASB." Mr. White said, "Both...are perfectly acceptable translation of the Hebrew word." He then selects "the standard lexicon in the field" from three liberal KJV Bible haters, Brown, Driver and Briggs as his authorities or reference to prove the meaning of the Hebrew word in Is. 14:12 (see page 147 in his book). But these scholars (Francis Brown 1849-1916, Samuel R. Driver 1846-1914 and Charles A. Briggs 1841-1913) in the 1800 were all part of the conspirators who hated the KJV Bible and desperately wanted to change it and destroy our confidence in it. (Read about their unchristian profiles in Chapter Six of the free downloadable book from the website above.) These men dishonestly changed words and meanings in their Greek and Hebrew work and replaced them with their own secular and pagan beliefs.

Furthermore, the Hebrew word for "star" is nowhere in the original Hebrew text in Is. 14:12. So they dishonestly added "star" in this verse, thus duplicating the name "the morning star," and subtly linking it to Madam Helena P. Blavatsky's teaching on Lucifer (more on this later). The Hebrew word here means "light bearer" or "shining thing/one." Therefore if we were to use either of these two meanings, the text would read like the following: How art thou fallen from heaven, O light bearer (or shining thing or one), son of the morning. Thus, how do you think scholars started from "Light bearer" (or "shining thing/one") and ended with "morning Star?" Deception and lies! So why should we accept what they concocted in this verse? Why should we place our confidence in Greek and Hebrew study tools they have written?

What is the difference in meaning of "son of the morning" and "the morning star?" (A star is any galactic body that gives light: the sun. A moon is any galactic body that reflex light.) One is light and the other a reflection of that light; or, one is the Creator and the other a reflector or reflection, an "early bird," "a morning person," of the Creator, etc.

⁹The problem with this name change is how do you convince the next generation of this explanation of two persons with the same name where one person is under the judgment of God and the other person is God. Even Strong who gave us "Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible," in his encyclopedia, charges that Lucifer is not Satan, but Lucifer is Jesus Christ. He was a member of the ASV translation committee that called Jesus Christ a "creature" and not the Creator. (See his encyclopedia, Vol. 5, page 542-543)

¹⁰Mr. White, gave his "best" possible explanation for this change and as a result, many modern version advocates accept his views to explain this cheap change of name, for the God of the universe, the ALMIGHTY! The explanation given for the name change is very flimsy; the repercussion of dangerously insulting God is too great and too much is at stake; even the possibility of losing rewards (or everything) for born again Christians.

¹¹It is so depressing to see what Bible scholars and university professors are doing to God's Word and many of our very beloved, pastors, ministers of the gospel and teachers of God's Word swallowing these "scholarship lies" hook, line and sinker; and worst of all they are very upset with anyone (like this author) who try to present these Bible version facts.

¹²Remember what Jesus said to the high powered RELIGIOUS LEADERS in His day: "Woe unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites..." "Woe unto you, ye blind guides..." "Ye fools and blind..." "Thou blind Pharisee..." "Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers..." As was in the days of our Lord and Savior (the Spoken Word), so it is with us today (the Written Word). "...for ye have perverted the words of the living God..." (Jeremiah 23:36)

¹³As mentioned earlier, our ministers of the gospel are very well aware of the painfully, terrifying and horrifying struggles in history of the Christian church to preserve our Bibles. Unfortunately, even though our modern versions today are seriously being watered down with each new edition, our ministers of the gospel either lacking spiritual discernment, unrecognizing or deliberately ignoring the possibility that there must be a guiding presence, an unclean spiritual force working behind the scene altering our Bibles to deceptively say what it wants us to read and believe.

If we all have to stand before God for ourselves, then please, let us investigate Bible versions issues for ourselves and not follow persons who criticize and ridicule the KJV Bible and never did any thorough investigation. "Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read..." (Is. 34:16) Beware of many university professors and their recommended reading endorsements: they hate literature that is pro-KJV and promote "anything" that is anti-KJV. (They hate the Written Word without a cause.) God said, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." (Hosea 4:6) Jesus said in Matthew 15:14: "Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch." Most people follow leaders they believe are truthful, honest and excellent speakers. Nevertheless, we've got to take an independent approach on this issue. There are enormous amounts of satanic scholarship attacking and infiltrating everything that is Holy and Godly today.

¹⁴As stated earlier, the Hebrew word for “star” is nowhere in the original Hebrew text in this verse. Therefore, it is very deceitful to erroneously add the word “star” to duplicate the name “morning star.” (In other versions “day star” or “star of the morning” is used at Isaiah 14:12.)

¹⁵In Greek, the word is “heosphoros” which means light-bearer; in Latin it is “Lucifer” also meaning light-bearer; finally, in Hebrew the word is “heyleel” meaning light-bearer. The meanings are all the same in these three languages. If you asked anyone who Lucifer is, they know immediately who you are talking about. Luciferians and Satanist know their master’s name: Lucifer; so how is it that “Bible” scholars do not have the correct meaning in their dictionaries, lexicons, commentaries, etc?

¹⁶Some scholars argue that it was Jerome who introduced the name “Lucifer” into the text. But Jerome simply translated his Greek “Bible” to Latin and the Latin word is Lucifer meaning light-bearer.

LET US EXAMINE THIS FROM SCRIPTURE

¹⁷Scholars claim that Isaiah 14:12 points to the king of Babylon (see Is. 14:1-15) but when these verses are examined carefully we discover that the LORD is directing His judgment to the person behind the earthly-human king as He did to Peter in Matthew 16:22-23. Notice what Jesus said, looking at Peter: “get thee behind me Satan.” Also, notice that Jesus used the exact same statement when Satan took Him up to a high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world (Luke 4:5-8). Jesus said, “Get thee behind me, Satan.” What is obviously clear in both verses is that Jesus was not talking to Peter, but to the spirit person behind Peter. Also, the person in Luke 4:5-8 is obviously the same person in Matthew 16:22-23.

¹⁸The question is who was Jesus Christ talking to in this verse? Was it Peter or was it Satan? Can he see Satan who he was talking too?

¹⁹Remember, casting devils out of persons was a very new phenomenon and not seen in the Old Testament as was seen during Jesus ministry. Therefore, these devils were talking to Jesus and He was talking back at them. However, as Jesus talked to them, He was looking at their victims but talking to the spirit behind, inside, or outside of them who was influencing their every action. (Mark 1:25-26, 9:25-26) Peter was allowing Satan to do the same thing which was why it prompted Jesus to look at Peter but spoke to the spirit behind or influencing Peter to say what he did.

²⁰We now have basically the same scenario with the King of Tyrus in Jeremiah and the king of Babylon in Isaiah where God was not talking to either king but the spirit behind them.

(Ezekiel 28:1-2, 11-17) The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God...Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God: thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee. By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.”

²¹In Ezekiel 28:1-17, the LORD said in verse 1-2: “say unto the king of Tyrus.” But what did He told Ezekiel to say? He told Ezekiel to say: [a] you was full of wisdom but corrupted it (naturally, in an absolute sense, human beings are never full or complete with wisdom); [b] you was perfect in beauty (honestly speaking, no human beings are); [c] you have been in the Garden of Eden (there were only four persons recorded in Genesis who were there) [d] every precious stones were your covering (this puts him outside of the natural human appearance); [e] tabrets and pipes were built into you (he is not human); [f] you were created (the king of Tyrus was born and not created; angels were created); [g] you were the anointed cherub that covereth (a Cherub is not human but an angel); [h] you were in the holy mountain of God and walked up and down in the midst of the stone of fire; [i] you were perfect in your ways (no humans except Adam, Eve and Jesus were perfect). The question then is: Does a human king fit these descriptions? If not, then who? It does not take a scholar to figure out who the LORD was talking too. From all descriptions given, anyone can see and understand that the LORD was directing this judgment message to Satan.

Isaiah 14:4-8, 12-15 “...thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased! The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the scepter of the rulers. He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth. The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing. Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us...How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

²²Now, just at face value, if we were to look at Isaiah 14:4-8, 12-15, who was fallen from heaven? Luke 10:18-20 and Revelation 12:7-12 described this person as Satan. Also, did the king of Babylon fall from
